- 1 Boil the channa dal along with the chicken thigh cubes and spices. Let the chicken cook. Strain and keep aside to cool.
- 2 Add ginger, garlic, salt, turmeric, red chilli powder, whole red chillies, cinnamon stick, garam masala, green cardamom and chicken. Mix well and mince.
- 3 Break an egg and beat it lightly to mix the yolk and white uniformly. Add little by little to the mixture and use as needed for binding. Make balls from the mixture, flatten them and place them on a plate.
- 4 Break an egg and beat it lightly. Dip the kebabs and fry them in hot oil. Fry on a medium flame until golden brown.
- 5 Chicken Shammi Kebab can be relished with mint chutney and tamarind chutney.

F&B FEATURE OF THE MONTH

ORIENTAL BAR & KITCHEN

Awarded Best Chinese Restaurant by Times Food & Nightlife Award 2018

GING for a taste of authentic Chinese cuisine

GING is an Oriental Bar & Kitchen offering a perfect blend of authentic Chinese cuisine in a luxurious contemporary décor with breathtaking views of the city. Perched on the top floor of Royal Orchid Central Hotel at Manipal Center, Bangalore. The restaurant has enviably the best location in town, overlooking Ulsoor Lake, Cubbon Road and acres of army greens.

GING is a play on Beijing, and the food is Chinese inspired, with a few hints of Asian flavours thrown in for the quirk. The food menu stretches from the known staples like dim sum and duck noodles to hawker grill from the streets of Asia.

As you walk down the grand staircase into the restaurant, you are greeted by an enormous dragon painted onto porcelain plates, inspired by Chinese blue pottery.

Beyond the restaurant, which is a mix of modern decor, antique wooden framework, bird cages and backlight panels, is a sleek modern outdoor space. This beautiful alfresco verandah is 10 floors above the city. Pillars are clad in terracotta inspired by the warriors of Xian, with a blue porcelain inspired lattice wall wrapping the walls ending with an outdoor bar that overlooks the city.

Lunch - 12.30 pm to 3.30 pm | Co-working Spaces - 3.00 pm to 7.00 pm | Dinner - 7.30 pm to 11.30 pm
