By booking with us you are agreeing to our terms and conditions:
To place a booking a deposit is required, the size of the deposit is determined by the size, date, time and type of booking and is agreed by both parties when the booking is made, this is non-refundable. Full payment for the booking is due 2 weeks prior to your chosen date. Any bookings made within the 2 week period will be required to make full payment upon making the booking.
Failure to make payment before this date will result in the loss of your table or area and your deposit. The Potting Shed do not store your personal information or card details, it is therefore your responsibility to contact us and ensure that payment is made on time. No refunds will be given should you wish to cancel your purchase of any extra items such as drinks packages or vouchers.
House rules apply to all bookings. Management reserve the right to refuse entry without refund. A booking does not guarantee entry to the venue, if the door staff believe an individual to be heavily under the influence or acting in an unacceptable manner before entering the premises they will be refused entry.
After 9pm due to licensing, guests must be 18 years or older (unless stated otherwise), proof of age ID must be provided if asked for by a member of staff. If you are unable to provide valid ID then you will be refused and given no refund of any items purchased. If somebody refuses to take up their booking on the night due to a member of their party being refused entry, then they will not receive any kind of refund. Once inside the venue please adhere to the rules, failure to comply will result in the ejection of the individual or the entire group with no refund.
Our standard terms of trade apply. All payments include VAT.
