OUR STORY

"People sometimes ask us, hey, if this is Mexican, where are all the sombreros and chimichangas at? We say sorry friend, this is Tortilla, and we do things a little differently.

Originally from San Francisco, we opened our first restaurant in 2007 after a four-year search across London for tasty burritos and tacos like the ones back home.

Our authentic recipes come straight out of Mexico, mixed with some Californian inspiration to create the freshest, most delicious burritos and tacos this side of the Atlantic!"
